

Your #1 Choice for #2

Avoid that embarrassing scent trail.

Ever gone to the bathroom and left behind a stinky smell, only to open the door to someone waiting to use it? Nature's Call is the solution to avoid awkward situations. Nature's Call provides the ultimate bathroom odor protection by blocking embarrassing smells from escaping from the toilet. Spray Nature's Call directly into the toilet bowl before using it, and it will create a strong shield across the surface to block smells from rising up into the air. Its combination of plant extracts and essential oils leaves the bathroom with a fresh, clean scent.

Safe for anywhere, anytime. Nature's Call is perfect for toilets at home, offices, parties, dorm rooms, hotels, public restrooms, businesses, spas - wherever there's a bathroom! One bottle lasts over 200 uses and is septic tank safe.
